His work is so creative and it's a shame that Father Time has taken away his great work. The book is great and the man who wrote it is equally great!4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. "look what I did"By banjo guyI was pretty disappointed with this book. It reads less like a "how to" book and more like a "see what I did" book. It has some good ideas, but is very limited as to instructional substance. The photography is decent and the book is very inexpensive, otherwise... not much to offer.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Timmy BoyWish I could follow through with this instruction and have a tree house as described!

With Maurice Barkley's expert guidance, you'll be able to create your own small retreat in the air. Barkley explains the entire process, including choosing one or more trees, selecting the right materials, tools and how to make a platform. Barkley also provides plans and instructions for a complete basic structure. An illustrated look at the magical tree house village he created rounds out this inspiring and practical reference.
